How to Work with the Ascended Masters Oracle Cards

Ascended masters are great spiritual teachers and healers, most of whom lived as humans upon the earth. They're powerful guides who can help you understand your life's purpose, muster the courage to make significant changes, and develop your psychic and manifestation abilities.

Each ascended master has specialties such as healing, manifesting, ascension, relationships, and so forth. They come from every religion and culture, and they're nondenominational. You don't need special training or experience to gain their help.

This deck of oracle cards will familiarize you with 44 ascended masters, as well as give you their messages and guidance. This deck is designed for beginners as well as experienced oracle-card users.

How to Use Your Oracle Cards

Oracle cards are an ancient, time-honored way to connect with angels and spirit guides. They're based upon Pythagorean numerology, which states that all numbers and images vibrate in mathematically precise ways.

You can't make a mistake with these oracle cards, because they operate with the infallible Law of Attraction. This means that your questions (or your client's questions) always attract exactly the perfect cards as their answers. You'll always pull the card whose answer matches the vibration of the question.

Here are the steps to give an oracle-card reading for yourself or others:

Step 1: Clear Your Card Deck

Since your cards are sensitive instruments, they need to be cleared of any energy they may have absorbed from the manufacturing process. Steps 1 and 2 only need repeating after another person touches your cards, or if your readings lack clarity because they're clogged with too much energy.

To clear your cards, first hold the deck in your nondominant hand (the hand you normally don't write with), as this is the hand that receives energy. Form a fist with your other hand (this is the hand that sends energy), and knock on the cards once with your fist. This clears out the old energy so that the cards are now a blank slate and ready to be imbued with your personal vibration.

Step 2: Consecrate the Cards

Touch each card briefly to infuse them with your personal energy. You can touch just one corner of each card to accomplish this. Then, fan the cards out with the artwork facing you. Hold the fanned cards to your heart and think about any prayers or intentions with which you'd like to imbue the cards. For instance, you can say silently or aloud:

"I ask that all of my readings with these cards be accurate and specific, and bring blessings to everyone involved. Please help me to stay centered in my higher self so that I may clearly hear, see, feel, and know the Divine messages that wish to come through these readings."

Ask and pray for whatever help you'd like during your readings, such as confidence, clarity, compassion, and so forth. Your cards now carry your personal vibration and intentions.

Step 3: Ask a Question

Think of a question you'd like the answer to. If you're giving a reading to others, ask them to either think of or verbalize their question. The ascended masters hear your thoughts, so you needn't voice your query aloud.

Step 4: Shuffle the Cards

Think of the question as you shuffle the cards, and ask the ascended masters to help you with answers and guidance. If one or more cards "jump" out of the deck while you're shuffling, place them to one side. They will be part of your card reading.

As you're shuffling, you'll likely notice feelings, thoughts, words, or visions. These Divine messages will help you to further understand the cards you draw. So, notice these impressions as they come to you.

When your cards begin to clump into two distinct sections, it's time to stop shuffling. You may get a feeling, thought, or vision to stop shuffling. You may even hear the words "Stop shuffling now." You'll want to trust and honor these Divine messages, which are helping you with the reading. You can't make a mistake and stop shuffling too soon or early, as the Law of Attraction ensures that you'll always choose the correct cards.

Step 5: Choose a Card

Pull the top card from the deck. This is the answer to your question. As you read the words on the card, notice any thoughts, words, feelings, or visions that come to you, as these are additional messages from the ascended masters that personalize the card's particular meaning for you. The picture also holds meaning for you, so study its details.

The next section of this booklet gives additional meanings for each card. Remember that you can change the outcome of any situation through prayer, visualization, and positive affirmations. The ascended masters can help you alter your future for the better if you'll ask and be open to receiving their help.

Three-Card Spread

After completing Steps 3 and 4 above, pick three cards from the top of the deck. Lay the first card to your left, the second card in the middle, and the third card to the right with the pictures and words lying faceup.

The card to your left speaks about the immediate past with respect to the situation you inquired about. The middle card reveals your question's current status and what you need to know or work on right now. The card to the right shows your immediate future, if you continue on your present path and follow the guidance in the middle card. Again, remember that you can improve your future by holding a positive outlook and following your inner guidance.

Multiple Card Decks

You can use the Ascended Masters Oracle Cards with other card decks to have additional details in your readings. Simply complete Steps 3, 4, and 5 for each card deck. Then look for the common theme among the cards that you've chosen as the answer to your question.

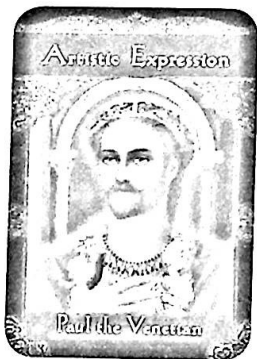

The Meanings of the Cards

This guidebook lists the general meanings of each card in the Ascended Masters Oracle Cards deck.

The cards are listed alphabetically, according to the theme related with each ascended master. Find the page and read the general meanings of each card. Your intuition will give you additional personalized guidance, so as you read about each card, simultaneously pay attention to your feelings and thoughts.

Artistic Expression

Paul the Venetian

This card signals that your artistic talents are in need of creative expression. You have hidden talents that lie dormant. This trapped energy can make you feel tired, restless, and anxious and can lead to addictions if the energy isn't expressed. Even if your artistic abilities feel unpolished, they need an outlet. Make the time today to draw, paint, sing, play music, write, take photographs, make jewelry, sew, dance, or do something artistic and creative. You may find the key to your life's purpose and ideal career through this process.

Additional meanings for this card: Take a class to learn a new artistic skill • One of your loved ones is an artist • Express your true feelings • Your life's purpose involves an artistic endeavor such as writing or playing music.

Paul the Venetian was the Italian Renaissance artist Paolo Caliari (his last name was later changed to Veronese to signify his birthplace of Verona). He moved to Venice (which is why he's now called the Venetian) during the city's golden era in the 1500s, where he painted religious murals and paintings. He was successfully able to defend himself against charges of blasphemy during the Inquisition for his artistic rendering of the Last Supper. You can call upon Paul the Venetian for help with freeing your artistic expression and creativity.

Balance Career and Home Life

Isis

You drew this card as a reminder to keep balance in your life. You can do this more easily than you may imagine. You already know which part of your life is lopsided, and you may be feeling symptoms of burnout from this imbalance. You can rapidly shift your energy in positive ways by devoting time each day to your priorities. Even 30 minutes a day spent in meaningful ways will lift your mood, morale, and motivation.

Additional meanings for this card: Play is a much-needed requirement for you right now • Make sure that your needs are being met • Delegate work to others • Say no to unrealistic demands upon your time • Be honest with yourself and keep healthy boundaries in your work and home life • Spend more time devoted to activities that make your heart sing with joy.

Isis demonstrated a perfectly balanced life as a great spiritual teacher and devoted wife and mother (to Osiris and Horus, respectively). Isis is a much-revered Egyptian goddess who symbolizes feminine strength and power. She can help you find enough time and energy to enjoy all aspects of your life, if you'll ask for her assistance.

Choose Peace

Paramahansa Yogananda

In this situation, choose the path of peace. As you think about your various options and possible outcomes, which brings the greatest feeling of peace to your body and mind? This is your answer.

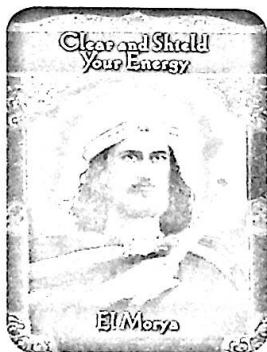

Additional meanings for this card: Listen to your heart's truth • There is always a peaceful alternative to conflict • Your peacefulness elevates your energy and helps you to manifest your desires • Meditate and do yoga as a way of attaining inner peace.

Paramahansa Yogananda is the beloved author of Autobiography of a Yogi who popularized yoga and meditation in the West. Yogananda's books and teachings emphasize the oneness of all spiritual and religious paths, and focus upon developing a deep love connection with God. Call upon Yogananda for guidance on your own spiritual path, as well as help in developing your meditation and yoga practices.

Clear and Shield Your Energy

El Morya

As a sensitive person, you've absorbed some harsh and toxic energy from other people. This card asks you to stop and call on El Morya and Archangel Michael to clear yourself. They can also clear and elevate the energies in other people, your home, or your office. After clearing yourself, ask them to shield you from further intrusions. This process, called "shielding," needs to be conducted once or twice a day. You can also wear a crystal pendant to act as a buffer in harsh energy situations.

Additional meanings for this card: Ask Archangel Michael to cut cords of fearful attachments between you and other people or possessions • Stay clear of harsh or toxic substances, environments, and relationships • Honor your sensitivity • Keep your thoughts as positive as possible to keep your energy clear and clean • Eliminate clutter or use feng shui to clear the energy in your home or office.

El Morya lived as Ranbir Singh, a member of the royal family of Kashmir in the 1800s. His political focus was on making humane and fair changes to the laws. Madame Blavatsky, a founder of the Theosophical Society, spent time with El Morya in India and then later channeled his messages after he passed away. You can call upon El Morya to help keep your energy clear, high, and protected, as well as to assist in any legal or political situation.

Come Out of the Closet

Amaterasu

(pronounced ah-mah-ter-ah-soo)

It's time for you to make your real feelings and beliefs known. This card asks you to reveal who you really are to yourself and others. This may involve having a heart-to-heart discussion with a loved one or allowing other people to see your true nature. You will be spiritually supported in this process, and the ascended masters will help you to be lovingly honest. As a result of coming out of the closet, your relationships will deepen because you'll know that you're loved for who you really are.

Additional meanings for this card: Let go of judgments about yourself or others • Speak your truth with love • Allow others to get to know the real you • Trust that your authentic self is lovable and likable • The more authentic you are, the higher the energy and success of all of your projects.

Amaterasu is the Japanese Shinto sun goddess who was so bright and radiant that her parents sent her to Heaven, where she now shines down upon humanity. Amaterasu became upset when her brother the storm god was demolishing the planet, so she hid herself in a cave in protest, and the world grew cold and dark. The other gods tried everything to coax her out. Nothing worked until they finally put a mirror at the cave entrance. When Amaterasu saw her bright and beautiful reflection, she finally came out of the cave. You can call upon Amaterasu to increase your self-esteem and to reveal your true self to others.

Crystals

Epona

This card comes to you as a sign that you'd benefit from working with crystals. Epona, the fairy queen, knows the value of connecting with the spirit of nature. You can find or purchase crystals at metaphysical bookstores, spas, and gem shows. Hold each crystal to know whether it feels right to you. Carry or wear the crystals throughout the day for healing, protection, and increased intuition. You can also add the crystals to your bathtub water, or place them on your bedroom nightstand or beneath your bed to connect on an even deeper level with these remarkable gems.

Additional meanings for this card: Crystal Children are involved in the answer to your question • Your life purpose involves working with crystals • You have a connection to the elemental realm, such as the fairies and crystals • Since Epona is a patroness of horses, this card may signify a message about a horse or horses.

Epona is the fairy-queen goddess who oversees and protects horses. Temples were built in her honor during Roman and Celtic eras where horses were essential to everyday life. Epona is also a protector of the environment and nature spirits. You can call upon Epona for help of any kind involving horses; or to help you commune with nature, fairies, crystals, or the environment.

Detach from Drama

Pallas Athena

You've been drawn into the upsetting world of human egos by focusing upon a drama. Although it's nothing more than a story, the drama feels frightening to you. This card comes to you as a helping hand in finding your way out of the story by detaching from the drama. Don't get pulled into the various plots, twists, turns, and characters of the drama. Instead, view it as a movie that you know will have a happy (or at least resolved) ending. Of course, you'll have compassion for everyone involved. Yet, you don't have to let drama pull you down in any way. As you focus upon the positive, you bring about a positive resolution.

Additional meanings for this card: Let go of attempts to make everyone happy • Allow others to make their own choices in life • Don't delay your life's purpose by focusing upon other people's issues • Avoid gossiping about or judging others.

Pallas Athena is the Grecian goddess of wisdom who became the patroness of Athens in a contest with the ocean god Poseidon. The term Pallas is one often given to Greek deities, and her more common name is simply Athena. She's a war goddess who uses wisdom instead of weapons to win conflicts. Call upon Pallas Athena for help with any conflict, or any situation calling for wisdom.

Drink More Water

Oshun

This card comes to you as a sign that your body is thirsty for pure water. Symptoms such as fatigue, difficulty in concentrating, irritation, and excessive hunger can actually be dehydration in disguise. Water helps you flush harsh energies and toxins that your sensitive body might otherwise absorb. Bless your water before drinking it to give yourself a boost of positive energy.

Additional meanings for this card: Spend time near an ocean, lake, or river • Rainfall is significant • Buy a water purifier • Avoid drinking chemical-laden liquids (such as sodas, coffee, or alcohol) • Sweat either through exercise, a steam bath, or a sweat lodge.

Oshun is an African goddess of rivers and waters. She helps women appreciate and enjoy their feminine beauty and sensuality. Both men and women can call upon Oshun for help with their romantic life, increased attractiveness and self-esteem, and any situation involving water or the flow of abundance.

Energy Healing

Merlin

The situation you've inquired about involves energy healing. You have healing abilities that you can direct through your hands, thoughts, and heart. Send loving energy to elevate and heal this situation. You can clear the energy in a home, office, or vehicle as well. Your experiences with energy healing may be so powerful that you decide to conduct healings as a profession.

Additional meanings for this card: Take an energy-healing course such as Reiki, Qi Gong, Pranic Healing, or Healing Touch • Your life purpose involves conducting energy healing • Clear the space in your home or office through feng shui, burning sage, or other energy-healing methods • Send love to the situation or person • Avoid situations, places, or relationships with harsh energy • Everything is healing and will be okay.

No one knows for certain whether Merlin actually lived as a mortal man or not. What is agreed upon is that Merlin is the quintessential magician and sage-wizard archetype. He's associated with King Arthur's Camelot, Avalon, and Glastonbury. He's also considered to be an aspect of Hermes Trismegistus, the teacher of esoteric wisdom. Merlin is a powerful ascended master who helps spiritual teachers and healers focus their energies in beneficial ways.

Father, Husband, Brother, Son

Osiris

This situation involves a significant man in your life. Your new relationships with men are affected by your old relationships with your father, ex-husband, boyfriend, brother, son, or other males. This is a perfect time for you to heal and release any old wounds connected to men in your life. God and the ascended masters will support you as you focus on letting go of old toxins such as anger, blame, or guilt. This clearing process opens the way for healthy relationships with men (and with your own male energy).

Additional meanings for this card: You have just met or are about to meet a significant male partner • Your present relationships improve as you heal your feelings about your father • A male deceased loved one is sending "I love you's" from Heaven • Balance your male and female energy by practicing both giving and receiving daily.

Osiris is the beloved brother and husband of the Egyptian goddess Isis. Their brother Seth got into a violent argument with Osiris that resulted in his death. Isis appealed to the sun god, Ra, for help. Ra revealed his secret name to Isis, who spoke the word to revive Osiris. In their joyful reunion, the couple conceived their son, Horus. Call upon Osiris for any situation involving men or masculine energy.

Fertility

Pan

This card signifies that it's a very fertile time for you. This is an ideal time for the conception of a baby or new projects. All of the doors are open for you right now. Your mind is fertile with many wonderful new ideas, and abundance easily flows to you. Since everything is in its infancy stage, have patience with the growth process. Just nurture yourself and your projects so that you stay strong and fertile.

Additional meanings for this card: You have the Midas touch, and everything is turning to gold right now • There is good news about pregnancy or adoption • Let go of worries or guilt and enjoy yourself • Now is a good time to start projects.

Pan is an ancient Greek deity of nature, mirth, music, and fertility. It was love at first sight for Pan when he spotted the lovely wood nymph Syrinx. Yet Syrinx didn't return his affection (it's said that Pan was so unattractive that his name became the root of the word panic because of the reaction children had when they saw him). So Pan ran after Syrinx down to the river. Syrinx called upon water nymphs for help, and they turned Pan into willow reeds. As Pan yelled for help, the reeds made beautiful music. Later, when Pan transformed into his original self, he made a musical instrument of reeds, which is today called a "panpipe." Call upon Pan for help with fertility issues, music, or to relax and enjoy yourself.

Find the Blessing in Your Current Situation

Krishna

Every situation offers opportunities to grow and learn. When we curse a situation, we block its energy flow and things fester and grow worse. In contrast, as you recognize the blessings within your current situation, supportive and healing energy flows toward you. This card comes to you because there's an unrecognized blessing within your current situation. It could be something that you've learned or gained, for example. Recognize the blessing to accelerate the healing and manifestation that's trying to come to you.

Additional meanings for this card: Instead of worrying, pray and use positive affirmations • Know that everything's in Divine and perfect order • This situation is resolving itself perfectly • You heal through the power of gratitude.

Krishna is the eighth incarnation of Vishnu, who is one of the three Hindu gods who oversees and protects Earth and her inhabitants. He is a messenger of joy, happiness, romantic love, and spiritual teachings (such as the Bhagavad Gita, which is a text of Krishna's dialogues). Krishna brings blessings to whoever calls upon him.

Flow of Prosperity

Lakshmi

This card indicates that your prayers about finances have been heard and answered. Tap into your manifestation power by focusing on abundance instead of worrying about money. You have nothing to fear. A new flow of prosperity is supporting you and your loved ones.

Additional meanings for this card: Stop worrying about money; worries only attract money problems • Everything's going to be okay, especially with respect to finances • You have the support to make a desired life change right now • Visualize and affirm prosperity.

Lakshmi is the Hindu goddess of prosperity who helps us overcome financial fears and tap into the river of abundance that's available to everyone. It's helpful to put a statue or painting of Lakshmi in the financial corner (according to feng shui principles, this is the left rear corner of your home or office as you stand looking inward from the front door). Call upon Lakshmi to help transmute money worries into financial flow.

Focus upon Your Strengths

Apollo

This card reminds you to focus upon your strengths and not upon any perceived weaknesses. Your strengths could include your loving heart, pure intentions, people skills, hobbies, or something that you excel in. Even if your talents still need polishing, these are strengths and assets. The more you bless and appreciate your strengths, the stronger they'll grow. If you focus upon so-called weaknesses, they will grow. This card comes to you as a reminder of the importance of viewing yourself with compassion and love. Anytime you find yourself thinking or feeling poorly about yourself, focus upon your strengths instead.

Additional meanings for this card: Use daily positive affirmations to lift your energy and faith • Speak of yourself in positive terms • Begin an exercise program to build and tone your muscles • This is a message of love or healing about a brother or brother figure.

Apollo is the Greek sun god who's the son of Zeus and twin brother of the goddess Artemis. Apollo is a powerful deity who can bring out the sunshine in your life, literally and figuratively. Renowned for his physical strength, Apollo can also act as a personal trainer to motivate your exercise program. He can also help you gain emotional and intellectual strength.

Follow Your Heart

St. Francis

The answer to your question is in your heart. This card signifies that you can trust your heart's true desires, even if you can't clearly see how the outcome will appear or manifest. This is a situation where you're called upon to walk in faith and be true to yourself. The universe will ensure that your needs are met and will help with your relationships as you make life changes.

Additional meanings for this card: You already know what to do; trust your intuition and take action accordingly • Your feelings are accurate and valid • You're guided to make important and happy life changes • You're receiving true Divine guidance through your feelings and intuition.

St. Francis of Assisi was born to a wealthy Italian cloth merchant, but he later renounced his inheritance to follow an ascetic spiritual path. As he volunteered in hospitals and ministered to the sick, he gained followers who eventually became the Franciscans. Many legends speak of St. Francis's ability to communicate with animals, and today he's the patron saint of the environment and animals. Call upon St. Francis for help in situations where your family or friends don't understand your choices or spiritual path, or any issue involving animals.

Freedom

(pronounced hee-nah)

Walk away from restrictions and be free! You have the power and the right to change your life so that you experience more freedom. This card signifies that your soul is crying out for more freedom, especially as it involves your life's purpose. Perhaps it's time to take a break so that you can think clearly about your desires and available options. The universe always supports the desire for expansion, creativity, and freedom. Say yes to freedom and the universe will say yes to you.

Additional meanings for this card: It's time to leave a situation that you've outgrown • Question the validity of any rules that you've imposed on yourself • Allow the universe to support you while you make desired life changes • Be assertive and say no to anyone who's overstepping boundaries with you.

Hina is a Polynesian and Hawaiian moon goddess who's considered so beautiful that no one can directly look at her. She felt compassion for the natives, so she threw pieces of the moon down to the islands to provide for their material needs. The pieces turned into banyan trees, which the natives pounded into tapas cloth for use in clothing and commerce. Call upon Hina for issues involving fertility, attraction, and manifestation.

Go Now

Serapis Bey

It's time for you to go, either away from a toxic situation or toward something desirable. This card signals that it's the right time to make your move. The conditions are ripe and perfect, and the universe is poised to support your move.

Additional meanings for this card: Quit your job • Leave a toxic relationship • Move to a new location • Start a new project without delay •

Take a vacation • No more excuses—just do it.

Serapis Bey is an Egyptian god of ascension and a bridge between Heaven and Earth. He's the ultimate life coach who motivates people to take good care of themselves physically, spiritually, and emotionally. Call upon Serapis Bey whenever you need additional energy and motivation to take action.

Health and Healing

Hilarion

This card is a sign of healing. Your Divine healing power has awakened and you feel compelled to help others to heal. Just as you've been healed, so too do you want others to enjoy health and vitality. You're supported in making life changes so that you can continue to heal yourself and others. Let go of any fears or restrictive thinking to fully open the miracles of healing.

Additional meanings for this card: An illness or injury is healed or healing • You are a healer • It is a good and safe time for you to change to a healing career • Study healing modalities.

Hilarion, also known as Saint Hilarion or Master Hilarion, was a 4th-century Middle Easterner who became renowned for his successful healing work. Hilarion was beloved by both Christians and those who practiced the old religions. Much of his life and healing work was immortalized by Saint Jerome's writings, which described Hilarion healing by commanding earthbound spirit attachments to leave. Call upon Hilarion for any issue involving healing or the clearing of energy.

Let It Go

Quan Yin

It's time to stop struggling, pushing, or forcing things to happen. Such actions push against the universal flow and lead to frustrations and blocks. When you let the situation go to Spirit, you automatically open supportive doors that will bring solutions and an outcome exceeding your expectations. Let go of struggle, anger, unforgiveness, or anything else undesirable. Trust that the Universe is on your side.

Additional meanings for this card: Let go of an argument, judgments, or a long-term hurt

- Have compassion for everyone involved in this situation, including yourself
- Be gentle with yourself
- Forgive yourself for what you think you've done or not done.

Quan Yin is the beloved Buddhist goddess of compassion whose name means “she who hears all prayers.” At her mortal death, Quan Yin was eligible for Buddhahood, yet she decided to stay close to Earth and help all humans until everyone became enlightened. You can call upon Quan Yin for help with forgiveness and compassion and to have your needs met in gentle and loving ways.

Listen

Manjushri

You can hear your Divine guidance best by quieting yourself and listening. Shut out noisy stimulation like telephones and television, and relax in a quiet place. Don't try to make anything happen. Just listen to your own thoughts, breath, and the rhythm of your heart. Then mentally ask questions of your guides and angels. Listen to the loving truth that they speak in your heart, body, and mind. Listen to your own inner truths. Trust your intuition and take action accordingly.

Additional meanings for this card: Have a quiet retreat • Your guides and angels are talking to you—are you listening? • Less talking and more listening is called for right now • Admit your true feelings to yourself • Listen to what messages any aches or pains are trying to tell you (the body always talks to those who listen).

Manjushri is a Buddhist deity of wisdom who holds a sword to cut through illusions and bring about clarity and understanding. Call upon Manjushri for help with understanding Divine messages, and to increase your receptivity to Divine intelligence and wisdom.

Meditate

Siddhartha Gautama Buddha

This card is a call for you to meditate regularly. Your path, body, and soul are asking for quiet time to reflect, think, and receive insights. Even a small amount of time devoted to daily meditation will bring you great gifts. You don't necessarily need any formal training in meditation. It's simply a matter of sitting quietly, closing your eyes, breathing, and listening.

Additional meanings for this card: Be still and listen • You need some alone time • Be honest with yourself • Join a meditation group or take a meditation class • Listen to a meditation CD.

Siddhartha Gautama devoted his life to finding an end to suffering. He renounced his family's wealth and tried several spiritual paths, including asceticism, in his quest for spiritual growth. He finally had insight that moderation (or "the middle way") was the path to enlightenment. He also demonstrated the benefits and importance of meditation, and many of his insights occurred as he meditated beneath the Bodhi tree. Call upon Siddhartha Gautama for help in developing your meditation practice, to practice moderation, and to overcome any form of suffering.

Mother, Wife, Sister, Daughter

Lady Nada

The issue that you're asking about involves a significant woman in your life such as your mother, wife, girlfriend, sister, or daughter. The first person who comes to mind is correct. Any unhealed feelings that you carry toward this person could be blocking or slowing the manifestation of your dreams, as well as leading to imbalances. This is a perfect time to call upon God, your guides, and angels to release any toxins associated with past or present female relationships. This process opens the way for healthy relationships with women, including your own feminine energy.

Additional meanings for this card: Balance your masculine and feminine energy by practicing giving and receiving on a daily basis • Be willing to forgive a woman in your life who seems to have hurt you • A female deceased loved one is saying "I love you" from Heaven • A new relationship with a woman will prove to be very significant.

Lady Nada is an ascended master who works with Saint-Germain and Archangel Michael to help bring about balance of the male and female energies in the world. Her name signifies the beautiful sound of the void of silence, where peace is found. You can call upon Lady Nada to help you find peace with both females and males in your life, and also to harmonize and balance masculine and feminine energies within yourself.

Nurture Yourself

Mother Mary

You've given a lot of yourself lately, and now it's time to give something to yourself. You've drawn this card because you need to nurture yourself. This means taking good care of your body through sleep, detoxification, and exercise. It also means taking care of your needs as you would for others. To have more energy, abundance, peace, purpose, and everything that you desire, nurture yourself.

Additional meanings for this card: Balance giving to others with receiving for yourself • Honor your inner voice • Get some rest • Take care of your body • Nurture your inner child • Your life purpose involves helping children • Mother Mary is with you, helping and guiding you.

Mother Mary is the beloved mother of Jesus who is renowned for her purity and compassion. Mary helps children (including our inner children) and caretakers of children. You can ask Mother Mary for a Divine assignment to help children as your life's work.

Open Your Heart to Love

Jesus

Everything you desire and every prayer that you seek comes as a result of opening your heart to both sending and receiving love. Your heart is the gateway of receptivity. It is the answer to every question you have about your love life, relationships, health, life purpose, and so forth. The more you allow yourself to love, the greater depth and meaning your life holds. Jesus and the other ascended masters will support you in this endeavor, ensuring that you're protected and safe as you open your heart to love.

Additional meanings for this card: To manifest a soul-mate relationship, heal any fears about giving or receiving love • Forgive those who seem to have hurt you • Be loving with yourself • Do energy work to open your heart chakra.

Jesus's message of love and forgiveness was profound and led to many demonstrations of miraculous healings. Jesus helps anyone who calls upon him, regardless of the person's religious or spiritual beliefs. Call upon Jesus for help with healing yourself or others emotionally, physically, or mentally.

Peace Offering

White Buffalo Call Woman

This card heralds the resolution of an argument or misunderstanding. Those involved in the situation are ready to forgive and forget. Be open to seeing the other person's point of view to soften any hard feelings. As you allow compassion into the situation, love's healing power ensures that everyone's needs are met harmoniously. Leave the details about how this situation will be resolved to the infinite wisdom of Spirit.

Additional meanings for this card: Be willing to forgive • Have compassion for everyone involved in this situation, including yourself • Accept another's apology • See the humor in the situation.

White Buffalo Calf Woman is a prophetess who appeared to the Lakota Native Americans. She presented the Lakotas with a special pipe to amplify the power of their prayers and to bridge a connection between Earth and Heaven. As she turned to leave the tribe, she turned into a buffalo of different colors to signify the unity of all races of humanity. She promised that she would return to help bring unity and peace to Earth. The sign of her return would be the birth of a white buffalo calf. Call upon White Buffalo Calf Woman to instill harmony into your relationships and for world peace.

Persistence

(pronounced loo)

Through persistent action and positive thinking, your dreams are manifesting into form. This is a time for you to stay persistent. Give any discouragement to Lugh and the angels, who will buoy your faith and give you signs of your progress. You're almost there, so keep going. It may help to break large projects into smaller steps so that you'll feel the thrill of accomplishment with each step that you take. Persistence pays off. Stick with it.

Additional meanings for this card: Overcome procrastination tendencies and take action today • Stick to your priorities and promises • Chip away at your dreams and desires with daily action steps • Stay positive and visualize your dreams as already manifested • Commit to your dreams for the long haul.

Lugh is a Celtic sun god of harvest time whose name means “the shining one.” His Celtic festival, called Lughnasa, is celebrated worldwide at the end of every summer. Legend says that Lugh was renowned as a master of many crafts including art, poetry, and healing. Call upon Lugh to help with mastering anything you’re learning, as well as for enjoying bountiful harvests of abundance.

Positive Change

Paravati

Your likes and dislikes have changed, and you've outgrown situations that once appealed to you. These are positive developments signaling your spiritual growth. Some of these situations are blessings in disguise, as they're pushing you to make necessary and positive changes. You may feel pushed beyond your comfort zone as multiple areas of your life shift and flux, yet the universe always stands ready to support you with whatever you ask for. Let go and enjoy this ride, because it truly is for the best.

Additional meanings for this card: Let go of procrastination or perfectionism • Break your major goals into baby steps and take one step at a time • Since Paravati is the goddess of mountains, this could be a message to retreat or move to the mountains • Revamp your schedule so that you devote regular time to your priorities • Be assertive in saying no to anything that diverts you from your path.

Paravati (sometimes spelled Parvati) is the Hindu goddess of mountains, marriage, and households. Legend says that Shiva the Hindu god was grief stricken following the death of his first love, Sati, so he retreated to a mountain cave. When Paravati was born in the mountains, Shiva fell in love with her devotion to helping the planet. They became united in love and had a son, Ganesh. Call upon Paravati for solace and solutions to any seeming problem, especially if you're meditating in the mountains.

Power of Joy

(pronounced my-tray-ah)

To find your desired outcome, follow the path of joy. Your life's purpose is supported by the joy and passion you feel when you're thinking about or working on your purpose. The joy that you feel within relationships keeps them alive, exciting, and growing. The joy that comes from your hobbies gives you extra energy. Of all the emotions, joy has the highest energy vibration. Joy has the power to remove all obstacles and attract all of your needs. Joy reminds us that we needn't suffer at all. We can fulfill our purpose, help ourselves and others, and heal through the power of joy.

Additional meanings for this card: Stay positive and filled with faith to manifest your desires into reality • Find the humor in this situation • Enjoy a good laugh • Develop hobbies that bring you pleasure • To find your life's purpose, do what brings you joy.

Maitraya (who's also called Hotei, Laughing Buddha, and Lord Maitraya) is the familiar image of the smiling and rotund Buddha. His name means "the loving one." He lived as a Buddhist monk who was renowned for his compassion and generosity. Some Buddhists believe that Maitraya is the "future Buddha" who will succeed Siddhartha Gautama as the next Buddha. Call upon Maitraya to increase your happiness and joy.

Priorities

King Solomon

Devote time to your highest priorities, even if it means getting to bed earlier or later. This is a wonderful time to work on projects that are near and dear to your heart. Even if you're confused about how to approach the project, or you fear whether you'll be able to accomplish your dreams, do it anyway. You'll feel elated by the time and energy you invest into your true priorities because your inner self will feel loved and well cared for. As you invest in your priorities, you're investing in yourself.

Additional meanings for this card: Let go of procrastination or perfectionism • Break your major goals into baby steps and take one step at a time • Revamp your schedule so that you devote regular time to your priorities • Be assertive in saying no to anything that diverts you from your path.

King Solomon ruled Israel following the death of his father, King David. Solomon was a wise and open-minded man who understood the power of the goddess thanks to the influence of his many wives. Solomon used spiritual alchemy to build the temple of the Ark of the Covenant, based upon architectural plans that his father had received in Heavenly visions. Call upon King Solomon to resolve dilemmas, to build new projects, and to foster tolerance among various religious and spiritual paths.

Purification

White Tara

Something involved with this situation needs purifying. This could be a signal to purify your motives and intentions so they're purely about service and not about fear or competition. It could mean a purification of your body and diet. Or it could simply mean adjusting your life so that all of your actions are in integrity with your true beliefs. White Tara will support and assist this purification, ensuring that it's a harmonious process that brings great blessings to you and others.

Additional meanings for this card: Put your whole focus onto "How may I serve?" instead of "What might I get out of this?" and everything will go better • Affirm loving thoughts about yourself and others • Avoid chemicals and toxins • Avoid any behaviors that lead to feelings of guilt or shame, as these lower your self-esteem • Leave situations that are out of integrity with your true beliefs.

White Tara is an aspect of the Eastern goddess Tara, who appears in various forms signified by different colors. As White Tara, she's a loving and helpful goddess who increases life expectancy and enlightenment in those who call upon her. White Tara is the very essence of everything that is pure within each human and all of life. Call upon White Tara to reveal your pure inner self, as well as to purify anything in your life.

Retreat into Nature

Green Man

You've been indoors too long and you need a refreshing break from stressful conditions. No matter how busy you are, there's always time to pause for fresh air. This card comes to you today with a strong message for you to spend time alone outdoors. The healing effects of nature will revive your energy and outlook, and you'll return to home or work with new ideas and a fresh perspective. Think of your nature retreat as an investment that will yield huge dividends.

Additional meanings for this card: Your desires or decision to take a vacation are valid • You have a life purpose involving environmentalism or nature • Work with pure flower essences, crystals, plant spirit medicine, or other natural healing methods • Commune with animals, trees, fairies, and other spirits of nature.

Carvings and paintings of Green Man's face peering through leaves adorn ancient churches throughout western Europe and India. He's long regarded as the face of nature and a fertility deity who helps crops to grow. You can call upon Green Man for help with your own garden, or to increase your connection to the spirit of nature.

See the Other Person's Point of View

Avalokitesvara

(pronounced ah-vol-oh-kee-tash-va-rah)

You have strong emotions about this situation and you may feel upset, misunderstood, or used. This card comes to you as a pathway to peace by asking you to consider others' points of view. You don't need to agree with these other individuals; you're simply asked to understand their motivations and to have compassion for their feelings. This process can positively shift the energy of power struggles, much like letting go of a rope during a tug-of-war. As you see the other person's point of view, you open the door for creative solutions to enter.

Additional meanings for this card: See yourself through the eyes of any person you desire to know or meet • Let go of defensiveness in your relationships • Look past the surface personality and see the Divine within others • Forgive past hurts and start anew.

Avalokitesvara is an Eastern deity who watches over the world and hears all prayers. He's considered to be the male energy form of Quan Yin, the goddess of compassion. Avalokitesvara has elected to postpone his own ascension into Buddhahood until all of humanity is free. Until then, he's readily available to anyone who calls upon him for help with spiritual growth concerns.

Spiritual Law of Attraction

Melchizedek

(pronounced mel-kee-zah-deck)

The situation you're inquiring about has come to you via the spiritual Law of Attraction. You've attracted certain people or situations because they mirror your thoughts, emotions, and beliefs. In the same way, people and situations that you once found desirable are now moving out of your life as you've shifted your energy through your spiritual path. "Like attracts like" means that everything and everyone that you draw into your life is similar to your thought patterns. If you want to change what or who you attract, hold more positive, loving, and joyful thoughts. The ascended masters and angels can help you with this shift.

Additional meanings for this card: You can change or heal this situation by elevating your thoughts to a more positive level • Your prayers and affirmations have attracted a wonderful new person or situation into your life • This situation is not a reward or a punishment; you have attracted it, which means that you can also repel or magnify it as you choose • Visualize and affirm only what you desire.

Melchizedek was a Canaanite priest-king and teacher of the patriarch Abraham. He's associated with Archangel Michael and Jesus in many ancient spiritual texts, including some who interchange his name with Michael's and Jesus's. Melchizedek is reputed to be Noah's descendant and a great spiritual master of alchemy and sacred geometry (the building blocks of matter). Call upon Melchizedek for help in mastering manifestation and to understand esoteric wisdom.

Stay Focused

Kuthumi

You drew this card as a reminder to stay focused upon your intentions, desires, and priorities. Don't allow yourself to be distracted by short-term situations, dramas, or other people's demands. Keep a positive outlook about your dreams, and imagine that they've already manifested into reality. Devote regular amounts of time toward your projects and priorities. Say no to distractions and you will see results.

Additional meanings for this card: Be assertive with demands upon your time • Keep your promises to yourself • Commit to your priorities • Spend time each day devoted to projects that are dear to your heart • Detoxify your diet to help your mind to be clear and focused.

Kuthumi (sometimes called Koot Hoomi) was a Sikh spiritual leader named Sirdar Thakar Singh Sadhanwali who lived in India during the 1800s. Madame Blavatsky, a founder of Theosophy, met Kuthumi during his lifetime, and later channeled his messages after his death. Some New Age teachers believe that Kuthumi was St. Francis and Pythagoras in previous lifetimes. Call upon Kuthumi for motivation, and focus upon your priorities and Divine life purpose.

Take Charge of This Situation

Moses

You have the power to heal and alter the course of this situation. It's time for you to take charge and assume a leadership position. First decide what you want. Be clear about the conditions that are acceptable or unacceptable to you. The universe responds when you're clear about your aims and intentions. The ascended masters will support your leadership role.

Additional meanings for this card: Talk openly and honestly about your feelings • Make a decision instead of passively waiting • Give yourself permission to do what you feel is right • Don't wait; take action now • Be your own authority figure.

The prophet Moses displayed courage and leadership throughout his lifetime. His clear decrees about his intentions led to miracles such as the parting of the Red Sea, bringing forth water from a boulder, and manifesting manna from Heaven. Moses is a powerful, beloved, and inspiring leader who can lend you courage in this situation and also in your life's purpose.

Teacher

Mahachohan Ragoczy

(pronounced maw-haw-ko-han rag-ok-see)

This card is about learning and teaching. You've learned a lot from your experiences and relationships, and now it's time to pass that knowledge along to others. Your current situation is bringing you opportunities for spiritual growth and teaching you some important life lessons. As soon as you understand and accept these lessons, old patterns will drop away and be replaced by wonderful new experiences.

Additional meanings for this card: This person or situation is bringing you important life lessons • Ask yourself, "What's the blessing that this situation has brought to me?" • Your life purpose involves teaching • Forgive a teacher from your past • You are urged to teach others.

Mahachohan Ragoczy, who's also known as Master Rakoczy or the Divine Director, is regarded as a great spiritual teacher whose students include Saint-Germain. He's very involved with world government leaders, intuitively guiding them toward peaceful resolutions. Call upon Mahachohan Ragoczy for help with esoteric learning, spiritual teaching, or efforts toward world peace.

Trust

Vishnu

You can trust the situation you're inquiring about. The solid foundation of your situation gives it a trustworthy basis. Keep purifying your motivations so that they're completely about love and service to elevate the energy and experiences even further.

Additional meanings for this card: The person you're inquiring about is trustworthy •

Trust that your prayers are being answered, even if you don't yet have evidence • You're on the right path • Trust your gut feelings and intuitions.

Vishnu is the Hindu god who works alongside the gods Brahma and Shiva to preserve the world. He brings about harmony when powers become unbalanced, and provides protection and mercy to all. A benevolent and loving deity, Vishnu can help you feel safe about your current and future life.

Twin Flame

(pronounced an-gus)

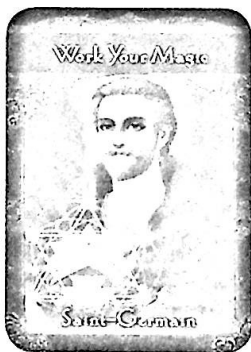

This card indicates a twin-flame relationship, which is the deepest form of romantic love. To form such a partnership, you must follow your inner guidance, learn personal-growth lessons, and have patience with Divine timing. Once twin flames find each other, everything in their life reaches new heights of love and light.

Additional meanings for this card: The person that you're inquiring about is your soul mate or twin flame • You will soon be with your twin flame • Keep your heart open, stay positive, and follow your guidance to manifest your prayers about your love life.

Aengus is a Celtic god who helps soul mates and twin flames meet and enjoy harmonious relationships. (A twin flame is an even closer and more eternal version of a soul-mate relationship.) He helps lovers resolve arguments with his magical harp music and healing kisses. When Aengus first saw a beautiful maiden named Caer, he fell deeply in love. Aengus followed Caer until he found her bound to swans by silver chains. Aengus transformed himself into a swan so that he'd be forever bound to his twin flame. Call upon Aengus to meet your soul mate or twin flame, and to resolve quarrels in love relationships.

Work Your Magic

Saint-Germain

You have the power to resolve the situation you're inquiring about. This card signifies your untapped magical abilities, which you've used successfully in the past. Pull these abilities out of storage and use them to work your magic now. Your clear and focused intentions, positive expectations, prayers, decrees, and action steps all create the healings and manifestations you desire.

Additional meanings for this card: Decide clearly what you will and won't accept in this situation, as your clarity will bring immediate results

- Have steady faith in a positive outcome
- Study alchemy and manifestation principles.

Saint-Germain isn't a Catholic saint, but a count from the French region called Saint-Germain. He was known as The Wonderman of Europe during his lifetime in the early 1700s. Saint-Germain was renowned for his magical abilities to give gems and fountain-of-youth-like elixirs to his many friends. He was a virtuoso musician and linguist who was beloved by royalty and blue-collar workers alike. Saint-Germain helps lightworkers who wish to work toward world peace and bring about integrity and honesty in governmental and other systems.

Write

(pronounced tay-ho-tay or toth)

You drew this card as a concrete reminder to write. You've been receiving lots of signs and feelings to write lately, so let this card be the message that leads you to take action. Get out a pad of paper or your laptop computer and begin writing. Don't worry about punctuation, grammar, or spelling, as you can take care of those details later. For now, just express your thoughts and feelings as they flow into your mind and body.

Additional meanings for this card: Keep a daily journal of your feelings and experiences

- Write down your intentions, goals, and desires
- Channel messages from your guides and angels
- Your life's purpose involves writing
- Write an article or book.

Thoth (usually pronounced Te-HO-tet) is the Egyptian god of writing, manifestation, astronomy, and esoteric arts. He's an aspect of Hermes, the teacher of the Hermetic principles of alchemy and Divine magic who had many incarnations. He's considered the originator of written languages, and was a prolific author and scribe of the ascended gods. Call upon Thoth for help with any writing project, or to gain a deeper understanding and proficiency with manifestation principles.

Yes

Ganesh

All the doorways are open for you, and the pathway is clear. Any previous obstacles have been removed. Keep a positive mind-set about the situation to ensure the best possible outcome.

Additional meanings for this card: The answer to your question is "Yes" • This is a good time to make a move or change • Your prayers have been heard and are being answered • You have positive support for this situation • Keep the faith.

Ganesh is the Hindu elephant-headed “over-comer of obstacles” who clears your path of any blocks. Call upon Ganesh at the beginning of any ceremony or new project to ensure a smooth start and steady progress. He’s also very supportive of writers and helps anyone who’s in a bind.

Yoga

Babaji

Babaji and the other ascended masters guide you to do yoga regularly. Yoga's benefits are one of the answers to your question. Through yoga, you'll gain increased clarity, energy, flexibility, toning, and psychic awareness. You may also meet wonderful new friends and have fun at yoga classes. Yoga is an ancient tradition among spiritual practitioners because of these many esoteric and material benefits. Don't delay. Do some yoga today.

Additional meanings for this card: Stretch often today • Practice breathwork today by taking full inhalations and exhalations • Teach yoga or invite others to participate in yoga with you • Watch a yoga video or take a yoga class today.

Babaji is a beloved yogi who is known as “the deathless avatar.” He learned to overcome all physical limitations. Many believe that he ascended with his physical body, which may account for the various sightings of a solid, living Babaji that people have reported. Babaji encouraged Paramahansa Yogananda to teach yoga to the Western world as a way of spreading enlightenment.

You Are Seeing This Situation Accurately

Horus

Trust your feelings about this situation, because they are accurate and valid. Let go of self-doubt, even in the face of others' opinions. Your spiritual sensitivity has helped you see the truth. Although it may be easier to go along with the crowd, or to shrink into apathy, you're called upon to take decisive action. You already know what to do. Even if people aren't supporting you, know that Spirit is. Other people will soon come around to your point of view. In the meantime, assume a leadership role.

Additional meanings for this card: Trust your intuition and gut feelings • Ignore critics, naysayers, or skeptics • Avoid situations or relationships that don't feel right to you • Only you know what is correct for you.

Horus is the Egyptian falcon-headed sky and sun god whose parents were Osiris and Isis. He was conceived after his mother brought his father back from the dead, with the help of the sun god, Ra. One of Horus's eyes was injured during a battle of revenge for his father's death. This is why Horus is represented with one large and clear-seeing eye. You can call upon Horus for help with spiritual or physical sight, including insight into the truth about situations.

You Can Do It!

Archangel Michael

You're qualified and ready to take the steps toward your desired outcome. You have what it takes to fulfill your dreams and your life's purpose. This card signals that it's time now to make your move. You can do it! Take action without delay or hesitation.

Additional meanings for this card: No more preparing or procrastination—just do it • You're a valuable and beloved person • Break big goals into smaller steps, and take one step today • You're on the right path • Let go of perfectionism and know that you'll do fine.

Archangel Michael is a powerful overseer of guardian angels. He helps lightworkers to remember and to fulfill their life's purpose. Michael holds a sword of light to cut away fearful attachments that bind us in apathy or procrastination. He gives us courage and strength to make life changes and to move beyond our comfort zone. Call upon Archangel Michael for protection, motivation, clarity, and courage.

Artwork by John Philip Wagner

Card Names: Write: You Are Seeing This Situation Accurately

John Philip Wagner, master artist, craftsman, and entertainer, is widely recognized for his paintings, which are in art collections worldwide. As a child, he plastered the walls of his elementary school with paintings of Egyptian pyramids and Roman ships; and in later years, studied theater arts as well as painting, sculpture, and printmaking. His residence in New Mexico led to many works of Native American and Southwestern art. Prints of his work can be purchased at www.dreamstone.com.au, and art cards at milkandhoneyinc.com. Currently, when not painting, he spends his time entertaining children with his "Wagner Marionettes" and travels the Eastern states with his mobile theater. His latest paintings of angels, fairies, Egyptian fantasy, and Southwestern art can be found on his Website.

John says, "I believe the beauty of an object or idea, when shared with others and sent out into the world, is increased by degrees, becoming a kind of mutual celebration with the artist, a sort of master of ceremonies."
