INTRODUCTION TO DRAGONS

What Are Dragons?

Dragons are beautiful, wise, open-hearted etheric beings of the angelic realms who are sent here by Source to assist us. They are elementals, so they do not have all the elements in their make-up. They can be composed of earth, air, fire or water, or a combination of any three of them.

They operate on a different vibrational frequency from us, which is why most of us can't see them, but they are very willing to connect with us if we are ready to tune in to their wavelength. Dragons really love this planet and everyone on it, and are pouring onto Earth now to help us with the transition to the new Golden Age.

What Do They Look Like?

For aeons psychic artists have drawn or painted dragons with remarkable consistency. What we see in dragon pictures is exactly what they look like! Because they are of the angelic kingdom, with open, generous hearts, they have wings, for etheric wings are extensions of the heart centre.

You can see different kinds of dragon in these cards, and you may be surprised and delighted by the variety of colours they have and energies they display.

How Can They Help Us?

Dragons can protect and care for us, be our friends and companions and help in a myriad of other ways. They can physically clear lower energies round us and travel with us at night if we go through the astral realms. This means they can burn up frightening emotional memories so that we don't have to experience them again. By day, they can move in front of us, clearing and lighting up our path. They can help us to flow round challenging situations and people or they can transmute lower energies before we reach them. They can inspire us and ground our visions.

As you work with these dragon cards, you will discover many ways in which dragons can support your life, assist your spiritual growth and illuminate your ascension path.

Do We Have a Personal Dragon?

All of us have a personal dragon who stays with us throughout our incarnations, just like our guardian angel. It stays in the background until we acknowledge it. Our dragon is usually the same element as our current astrological sign. Dragons grow as we do, so they change element with us and this is part of their spiritual growth and learning.

Therefore:

- If you are an earth sign (Taurus, Virgo or Capricorn), you will probably have an earth dragon.
- If you are an air sign (Gemini, Libra or Aquarius), you will probably have an air dragon.
- If you are a water sign (Pisces, Cancer or Scorpio), you will probably have a water sign.
- If you are a fire sign (Aries, Leo or Sagittarius), you will definitely have a fire dragon.

However, if you need a fire dragon to fulfil your life mission, one will be with you. If you need to be more psychic and intuitive in your life, a water dragon will come to you. If you need to be grounded or to make your ideas come to fruition, your dragon will have earth qualities. If you need to communicate clearly or inspirationally, an air dragon will be by your side.

And your personal dragon may have more than one element.

Why Are They Here Now?

In the 20-year period from 2012 to 2032, the planet Earth and every being on her have to ascend from the third to the fifth dimension. This is because we are rapidly moving from a selfish, self-centred society to one where everyone co-operates and works for the highest good. Such a huge shift is unprecedented in the entire history of not only the planet but the universe, so we need as much assistance as we can draw in. A clarion call has gone out through the universes for help with this monumental task, and dragons, who have always loved Earth, have responded with love.

In the golden eras of Lemuria and Atlantis, there were many dragons on Earth. Fourth-dimensional dragons have always been with us, though not in the numbers that are here now. Fifth-dimensional dragons started to return at the Cosmic Moment in 2012 and recently their numbers have soared. Incredibly high-frequency dragons of the seventh and ninth dimensions started to return in 2015, when many new high-frequency portals opened.

All these dragons are making a huge impact on the consciousness of the people on this planet.

Dragons, Angels and Unicorns

Dragons, angels and unicorns are all part of the angelic realms. They originate from the heart of God rather than the mind of God and do not have free will. Their only will is to serve Source for the highest good of all. They operate between the fourth and the ninth dimensions. It has only been in the last few years, as more of us have become fifth-dimensional, that we have been able to connect with the ninth-dimensional aspect of the angelic realms.

Dragons, angels and unicorns all work on different aspects of life. For example, if you are buying a house, you need a solicitor, an estate agent and a surveyor. All do something different but important. Dragons, angels and unicorns are the same. Dragons clear the lower energies and prepare the way for higher frequencies to come in, angels and archangels sing over us and light our way, and unicorns pour high-frequency light and blessings over us.

Different Frequency Dragons

Fourth-dimensional Dragons

These wonderful beings love humans and nature and help every aspect of the natural world. They have served us and our planet for aeons. They can delve into deep dark vibrations to burn up, blow away or wash out the lower energies that angels cannot reach. They protect us and clear our path of obstacles or help us circumnavigate them.

They also assist us in moving between the dimensions and help to prepare us energetically for the high-frequency energies coming in.

They are Lemurians, so passionately love the planet and everyone on her. Even before the end of the civilization of Lemuria, all that time ago, they knew that in AD 2012 Earth would start to go through a challenging 20-year double-dimensional shift before the new Golden Age. So, with the angels, they merged Source energy with qualities from the auras of several stars. Then they poured the blessed molten crystal into seams in the rock in specific places. These became the powerful Lemurian healing crystals that are surfacing now to help the planet ascend. The fourth-dimensional dragons are helping those who are ready to retrieve these crystals so that they can be used for the highest good.

When the Golden Age of Atlantis terminated and the civilization collapsed, these dragons were offered ascension to the fifth dimension as a reward for their incredible service to the planet. However, they sacrificed their ascension promotion in order to remain and assist us through this massive frequency shift.

Fifth-dimensional Dragons

These dragons are helping us to hold a fifth-dimensional frequency and to prepare for the new Golden Age. They transmute all that is holding us back and help prepare our energy bodies for the higher energies now available. They all offer incredible service work to the planet and humanity. When we work with them, our light expands and grows.

Seventh-dimensional Dragons

Seventh-dimensional dragons work with the luminous devas, the angelic beings who work with the blueprint of creation. The dragons use their powers of creation and manifestation to assist the devas to take the vision and put it into practice. For example, a blue dragon from the Pleiades may place a blue Pleiadean rose in our energy fields and make it physical for a moment so that it can influence us at a cellular level, dusky pink dragons from Andromeda may touch our chakras with higher love and help us to embody it, and the dragons of Lyra, who carry the codes of Lyra, are working with Archangel Christiel to develop our causal chakras and those of countries, stars, etc.

Ninth-dimensional Dragons

Ninth-dimensional dragons carry the codes for the cosmic energy they represent. They work with ninth-dimensional devas, who are the visionaries who manage the cosmos and ensure everything works together in harmony. The dragons may mock up a blueprint so that the devas can see how a particular idea works. They are extraordinarily high-frequency beings.

Eighth-dimensional devas teach enthusiastically about the visions that are produced, pouring love into each concept as it comes to creation. To the best of my understanding, this is not a task undertaken by the dragon kingdom, so there are no eighth-dimensional dragons.

INTERPRETATIONS OF THE CARDS

EARTH DRAGON

Clears your path and the land around you.

Stay grounded. Be ready to serve. Stuck energy is clearing. You can move forward in life.

About

Fourth-dimensional earth dragons are brown, the colour of the soil. They love the planet and the land itself. It was these sturdy dragons who helped to build the original dragon lines that we now call ley lines. Part of their service work is to travel along them to clear them when asked to do so. When we send an instruction to the earth dragons to work with the ley lines, they can power away under the surface to clear any blockages. This impacts hugely on people and situations in the vicinity.

They can also help to ground us and our mission in this life.

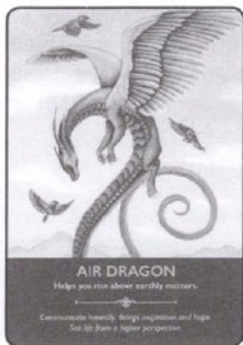

Guidance

It is time to clear unwanted energies that are preventing your life from moving forward. Some of these may be in the earth under your home or office or where you travel. Call on the earth dragons and ask them to remove all that is not in accordance with divine light. Then sense the frequency rising within the land and on your path.

This card also suggests you may be called on to do planetary service work, as the earth dragons will take the opportunity to cleanse any ley lines you focus on. Take a moment to direct them to clear the planetary grid and visualize the grid glowing and shimmering.

When you walk, think of the earth dragons and connect with them through the earth. Ask them to ground you and your vision, for this card signifies that they are now boosting your spiritual journey and you are ready to fly. Notice the progress you make.

Fourth-dimensional Dragons

AIR DRAGON

Helps you rise above earthly matters.

Communicate honestly. Brings inspiration and hope. See life from a higher perspective.

About

Fourth-dimensional air dragons are blue, the colour of the sky, and fly lightly around us. Air is the element of communication and these dragons help us to speak our truth. They also encourage us to breathe properly so that we inhale as much Source energy as possible. When air dragons puff their energy over a person or situation, they bring new hope and opportunity. We can call on them to exhale over situations to enable resolutions to be taken for the highest good. In their energy fields, they carry the light of higher possibilities for the planet.

Guidance

Air dragons suggest you take things lightly, so choosing this card indicates you should relax and look at part of your life from a higher perspective.

Air dragons also inspire you to communicate honestly but lovingly in a way that calms and soothes everyone around you and promotes good outcomes. Honest communication will bring pure white light into your aura, and when this happens, everybody will trust and respect you.

Blue air dragons are supporting you as you rise above your challenges. They will help you to say the most tactful or inspirational words and assist you to stand in your power with integrity. Breathe blue and white light into your heart centre, and as an air dragon appears in front of you, breathe the light over it. In this way, you are energizing and motivating it so that it will always be connected to you.

It is time to decide on your next step, so be clear about what you really want. Your air dragon will accompany you as you fly towards your chosen destiny.

FIRE DRAGON

Burns up the lower energies around you.

You are safe and protected. Be determined and inspired. Clear your soul pathway.

About

Fourth-dimensional fire dragons radiate a bright orange fiery light. They are powerful beings who give us power, thrust and determination when we work with them. They are the master clearance experts and will direct their blazing flames at anything we ask them to, transmuting lower vibrations that no longer serve us. They will fly in front of us when we travel, often burning up challenges before we reach them. They are also extremely protective of their companions and those who work with them. They will light up our friends and roar at those who undermine us.

Guidance

If you have received this card, it is time to invite the fire dragons to burn up any circumstances in your life that are not serving you. Call on them to delve deep into your childhood or past lives to release you from your past so that your future can shine. They have the ability and power to travel along the timeline of your soul journey, clearing, healing and transmuting as they do so. They are happy to do this while you sleep if you ask them.

Ask them to clear and light up the path in front of you each day. Then relax and trust that all is as it should be.

These orange dragons have huge open hearts and love to keep you safe by creating a fiery wall of protection round you or your home and family, so remember to ask them to do so. Call on them to light you up in their flames and breathe inspiration into you. You may be amazed at the positive and courageous way you start to deal with people and situations.

WATER DRAGON

Helps you flow easily round obstacles.

*Christ Light and love are flowing.
Develop your psychic abilities. Go with the flow.*

About

Fourth-dimensional water dragons are a soft green colour and very beautiful. They undulate with the flow around them and help everything to move forward with grace and tranquillity. Their service work is to maintain the constant movement of Christ Light in the waters of our planet. They also help us develop our psychic abilities and intuition.

Guidance

The message the elemental water dragons are bringing you is to flow round your challenges with loving intent. If you ask them, they will help you look for an easy way to circumnavigate your challenges and to deal with people lovingly.

To enable this to happen, they will help you to develop your intuition and psychic abilities by touching your third eye and allowing the petals of this psychic centre to open. When you listen to your inner wisdom and trust that the water dragons will guide you, the course of your life will run more smoothly. Ask them to cleanse the cells of your body, for this will enable you to shine your light even more brightly.

Then your guidance is to relax, so that they can access your energy fields and pour the golden Christ Light of pure unconditional love into them. Consciously absorb this golden Christ Light and flow with it. This will bring you love, wisdom and healing and enable you to travel effortlessly on your ascension path. It will also allow you to direct and help others with calm and integrity.

EARTH AND AIR DRAGON

Manifest your hopes and dreams.

About

Fourth-dimensional brown and blue earth and air dragons breathe life-force, hope and vitality into our hopes and dreams, while enabling us to ground them. They bring us into balance and harmony so that our visions can manifest in physical reality.

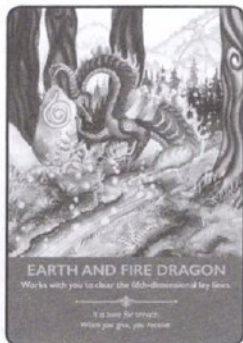

To do this, we first picture our castle in the air and then ground it. These glorious dragons help us with this process.

Guidance

This card indicates it is the time to clarify your hopes and intentions. Ask the brown and blue earth and air dragons to illuminate your visions. Then ask them to help you take all the action necessary to bring those visions into physical reality. This will re-energize your life.

These dragons also offer you assistance in rising above your challenges while remaining grounded in the beautiful vibration of Earth. They enable you to find the perfect balance so that your life can truly flow with grace and ease. So call on them now and ask them to help you understand the purpose of your life's lessons and see the highest good in all people and situations. As you see the lessons presented to you on your ascension pathway from a new perspective, your life will be filled with joy and purpose.

Let the earth and air dragons breathe their life-force into each of your 12 chakras and bring your into balance and harmony. Relax as they do this and you will have a new sense of calm and equilibrium as you walk your divine path.

EARTH AND FIRE DRAGON

Works with you to clear the fifth-dimensional ley lines.

*It is time for service.
When you give, you receive.*

About

This is a card of service, for the fourth-dimensional brown and orange earth and fire dragons are calling on us now to help them clear and light up the new ley lines of our beautiful planet.

The original ley lines were called dragon lines, for they were maintained by the dragons of old. Now a new fifth-dimensional ley-line system is being placed into the Earth to carry golden Christ energy and prepare the planet for the new Golden Age. The dragons of earth and fire move through these lines, creating a path of light through which the higher love frequencies can flow.

Guidance

Humbly invoke these dragons and have a sense of the power of the flaming orange fire combined with the grounding brown earth. Reach out a hand to touch the dragons. Then visualize Earth being criss-crossed with lines of golden light. Picture these dragons anchoring this golden Christ energy wherever there are sacred places on the globe. Mentally place a golden flame at each of these sacred portals until you sense our planet lighting up.

Whenever you are out walking or driving, ask the magnificent earth and fire dragons to travel along the ley lines below you. Bring the Christ Light down through you so that they can distribute it where it is most needed.

When you give, you receive. The earth and fire dragons will illuminate the challenges on your route ahead and as soon as you have acknowledged them, they will dissolve them. This will smooth your path. It will also allow you to step lightly into your role as a master as the new Golden Age approaches.

EARTH AND WATER DRAGON

Creates the foundation for new growth.

*A fresh start is coming, with new opportunities.
Nurture your ideas and harvest the abundance.*

About

Fourth-dimensional brown and green earth and water dragons bring the blessing of a new opportunity. They synchronize the energy and timing to ensure it blossoms. The element of earth enables us to ground our projects, while the element of water enables us to flow with them. When combined in the earth and water dragon, these are very auspicious qualities. When mixed together in the physical world, earth and water create mud, which is excellent for the growth of seeds.

Guidance

If you are planting a tree, you place its roots into the soil and make sure it has a good foundation. Then you activate its growth with water. In due course, you harvest the fruit. The more effort you put into providing the perfect conditions for the tree, the better the crop. This card is showing you this is a good time to create. With the gracious assistance of the earth and water dragons, you can lay a strong foundation for your future.

Picking this card suggests it is time to start a new phase of your life. Fresh opportunities may be presenting themselves to you, so be ready to nurture any ideas or visions that come to you. The earth and water dragons will enable you to know intuitively what is right for you and to harness your creativity. They will help you to generate the right conditions to succeed. They will motivate you to put in the necessary work, for this is an important step, and then you can harvest your abundance.

Most importantly, they will help you to take things lightly. So listen to your inner wisdom. The time for action is now.

AIR AND FIRE DRAGON

Expands your creative energies.

Harness your creativity, excitement and enthusiasm. Communicate your passion.

About

Shimmering fourth-dimensional blue and orange air and fire dragons are very vocal. They love to express themselves and make their presence known. They often create turbulence as they swirl around us.

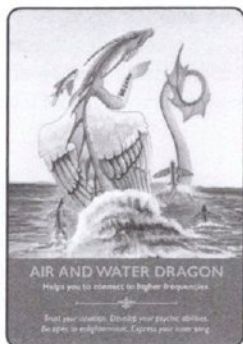

Air mixes with fire to ignite an explosion of creativity, enthusiasm and aliveness. These dragons make us feel happy, excited and sometimes a little unsettled or even overwhelmed. At the same time, the element of fire transmutes lower energies and clears the path of our destiny, while air enables us to communicate our passion at a soul level.

Guidance

Choosing this card indicates it is time to harness your gifts and talents for your highest good and that of the world. You have something in your soul to bring forward. So your guidance is to decide what fires your enthusiasm, then trust your inner wisdom and talk about it. Take a chance and step onto your true path of happiness and creativity. Remember that excitement and passion are magnetic qualities and will draw the right people and situations to you.

This card can also suggest that circumstances may present themselves to you in which you will be required to make a rapid decision using your intuition and discernment rather than logic. The air and fire dragon who has come to you is telling you to trust yourself. You have all you need to make the right choice. With your air and fire dragon beside you, success is ensured.

AIR AND WATER DRAGON

Helps you to connect to higher frequencies.

*Trust your intuition. Develop your psychic abilities.
Be open to enlightenment. Express your inner song.*

About

Fourth-dimensional blue and green air and water dragons pour light into our third eye to assist our psychic and spiritual development. They help to dissolve our veils of illusion and enable us to see from a higher perspective. At the same time, they bring us inspiration and higher aspirations. They remind us to trust our intuition even when logic demands another course of action.

Add air to water and you create bubbles and sparkling waters. Air and water dragons bring lightness and something special to our life. When they soar and shimmer round us, a sense of happiness and hope lights up within us. They enable us to connect with our inner song and start to express it.

Guidance

Call on your blue and green air and water dragon to enter your third eye to awaken and activate your higher fifth-dimensional abilities. This will bring you crystal-clear clarity and new vision and awareness of life. Your third eye is a very sensitive psychic centre and when it is fifth-dimensional, the air and water dragons clarify and protect it and enhance your ability to use it for the highest good. They then enable you to connect to Neptune, the planet of higher spirituality, to open to new enlightened understanding.

Choosing this card calls on you to use your intuition as well as your spiritual knowledge and wisdom to see everything from an illumined perspective. Air and water dragons will then surround you and enable your life to flow. They will attune you so that your voice expresses the true notes of your soul.

FIRE AND WATER DRAGON

Enables your life to flow with loving force.

Prepare for change and to move forward quickly.

Expect the unexpected. Have fun.

About

Orange and green fire and water dragons are fourth-dimensional powerhouses. Fire and water together create steam, which is a mighty force that moves us forward, towards ascension. Fire energizes us, while the water aspect helps us to flow. This flow may be gentle, but we are more likely to be caught up in a raging torrent. With a fire and water dragon around, we change, and movement is inevitable.

These particular dragons can also be very playful. They come to us if we want or need to add excitement and fun to our life.

Guidance

Call on fire and water dragons whenever you face big changes, decisions or challenges on your pathway. They will push you through times of inertia or fatigue by filling you with new expectation and excitement. Once you have made up your mind, they will bolster your energy and give you thrust and determination. They also love play and fun and will lighten you up.

Your guidance now is to be prepared for rapid change in your life, as you are being propelled into a higher state of being. If you make up your mind about the direction you wish to take, these dragons will push you on with grace and surprising ease. If you are not clear, you may find something arises that you hadn't anticipated. So expect the unexpected and enjoy the changes coming to you.

Look through the eyes of a fire and water dragon and see everything from a higher, lighter perspective. And remember that whatever happens will be for your highest good.

GOLDEN CHRISTED DRAGON

Brings you higher love so that you embody the Christ Light.

*Absorb the Christ Light. You are protected.
Expand your heart and remain fifth-dimensional.*

About

Golden Christed dragons are fifth-dimensional dragons with huge golden energy fields. They can access the Christ Light of unconditional love at a ninth-dimensional frequency, which is the highest facet of love energy that is available to us at this time, and pour it into us at the maximum level we can absorb. They will come to us on our birthday or special occasions or celebrations and flood us with the cosmic gift of their special light.

They will also come to us if we call them. Then they will surround our aura with their protective golden light, enabling us to remain fifth-dimensional.

Guidance

You are blessed to receive this card, for the luminous golden Christed dragons will automatically flood you with the purest Christ Light. They will remind you that your heart is incredibly powerful and will pour pure love into the centre of it in order to open it further. Be ready to accept this love and then to spread it to others.

These dragons also come to remind you that you have a special connection to the Golden Era of Atlantis. This may have been in incarnation or in your spirit body. It is time to remember who you truly are, so ask the golden Christed dragons to help you to bring back your gifts and talents in your dream state.

About

Emerald dragons are wise healers who prepare us to align with our true fifth-dimensional blueprint. They work with the mighty Archangel Raphael, the emerald angel in charge of the development of the third eye. They clear our emotional body to leave us free to love, forgive and open our hearts.

These magnificent dragons also retune our mental body so that our thoughts support our divine perfection. This allows Archangel Raphael to pour emerald light through our spiritual body, so that our physical body aligns with all we can be.

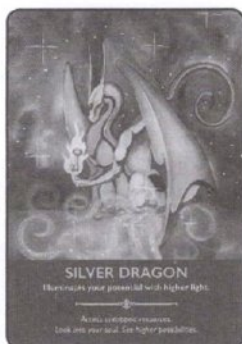

They also open us up to cosmic abundance. Working with Archangel Raphael, they link us, through our third eye, to Jupiter and its ascended aspect, Jumbay. This is the planet of good fortune and beneficial rewards. The blessings that fall upon us may be financial, but not necessarily, and they are always fortuitous for our ascension pathway.

DEEP BLUE DRAGON

Keeps you safe by clearing your pathway.

Trust that you are protected.

Walk on a path of light.

About

Deep blue dragons work with Archangel Michael, the angel of strength and protection. Dragons can delve into deep dense matter in a way that angels cannot. They can clear and transmute lower frequencies up to one kilometre around those they work with. These frequencies may be our emotions and thoughts or the emotions and thoughts of people in our vicinity.

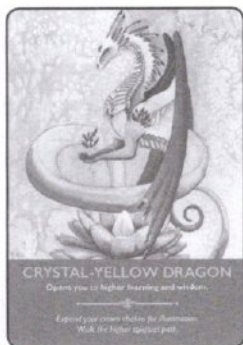

Many of us are very sensitive and do not realize how much the vibrations of others impact on us. Every time we walk in a crowd, we are in a sea of mixed energies, and these deep blue dragons are master clearance experts. They blow away the foggy vibrations and then Archangel Michael can more easily connect with us and place his deep blue cloak around us.

Guidance

This card is suggesting that you call on the deep blue dragons to protect you or your loved ones. Visualize a protecting army of deep blue dragons gliding in front of you wherever you walk or drive. Let them precede you into your home or office. Ask them to dive into the ground below your house to consume all lower energies. Ask them to keep an area of a kilometre around you totally clear. Relax and trust this is happening.

Because the deep blue dragons are transmuting the lower emotions of those in your vicinity, you are no longer moving through the dense energies of other people. Notice how much lighter and happier you feel.

You can serve the planet by asking deep blue dragons to dive under your shopping mall, schools, big buildings or anywhere you feel they are needed to consume dense vibrations.

CRYSTAL-YELLOW DRAGON

Opens you to higher learning and wisdom.

*Expand your crown chakra for illumination.
Walk the higher spiritual path.*

About

Crystal-yellow dragons clear space around the crown chakra of animals and humans, and then illuminate the chakra and set it glowing. This enables the angels and Source itself to see us.

Each of the thousand petals of our crown chakra can be extended to connect with a particular star, planet or universal energy. However, in order for the petals to reach out, the light round them must be pure. So crystal-yellow dragons work rather like fairies, who blow away the lower frequencies round plants so that they can grow freely.

Crystal-yellow dragons not only have huge open hearts, but they also carry fifth-dimensional wisdom codes for the universe and can download them into those of us who are ready. They work with Archangel Jophiel to light up and expand the crown chakras of all of us at a fifth-dimensional frequency. They then co-operate with the unicorns to connect the petals into sources of universal wisdom and knowledge.

Guidance

Receiving this card suggests it is time for you to walk a higher spiritual path. Crystal-yellow dragons are swirling round your head, freeing the petals of your crown chakra from lower energies, allowing them to open and illuminating them.

These dragons remind you that you are a being of the universe. The ultimate is to become a cosmic master, so step onto a diamond path. The crystal-yellow dragons will ensure you connect with those who are ready for the light you carry. When you meet people, your light will automatically light up the keys and codes of mastery latent within them. The time for this higher service is now.

Within the inner planes of the star system of Sirius and its ascended aspect, Lakumay, there are renowned universities attended by beings from the entire cosmos. In these elevated establishments, higher knowledge and spiritual technology from many universes are disseminated.

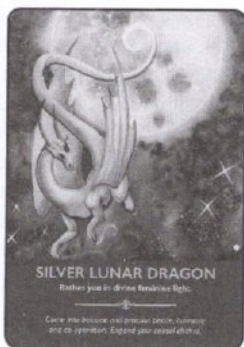

These magnificent dragons work in these academies of light, and carry the keys and codes of the spiritual technology of the future in their energy fields. Their mission is to spread this to all those who are ready, to help bring in the new Golden Age.

These dragons are cosmic travellers and, like all dragons, help us to move through the dimensions. In addition, they will guide and protect us on our inter-dimensional journeys between Earth and other parts of the universe, especially if we aspire to be an intergalactic master.

Guidance

Drawing this card suggests you invite these luminous beings to swirl round you, touching your chakras with the sacred geometry of the universe. Then ask them to tune you in to any aspect of higher knowledge you can bring forward now. Sit quietly and allow this to happen. You may receive a download of information, or various keys and codes you carry in your soul may light up. If so, you will become a transmitter who broadcasts sacred knowledge, though you may not be consciously aware of it.

This is a very powerful dragon, so notice subtle changes in your thoughts and attitudes. Your dreams may reveal memories from your travels with the wonderful green-gold dragons from Sirius.

SILVER LUNAR DRAGON

Bathes you in divine feminine light.

Come into balance and practise peace, harmony and co-operation. Expand your causal chakra.

About

The moon is a portal through which divine feminine light pours onto Earth. It bathes the planet and more specifically connects to our causal chakra and helps to activate it. Recently, seventh-dimensional silver lunar dragons have been able to access this portal and stream into our dimension, particularly when the moon is full. They carry divine feminine light in their energy fields and their mission is to touch us with it to prepare for the golden future.

For 10,000 years we have been influenced by the masculine. However, in the new Golden Age, the feminine qualities of peace, harmony, equality, co-operation, love, unity and wisdom must harmonize with the masculine. So silver lunar dragons are very dynamic now, because they are actively bringing about the balance of yin–yang energy on the planet.

As these shimmering dragons touch our causal chakra and enable it to expand, unicorns are able to use the illuminated chakra as a portal to enter Earth and assist our ascension. In this way, the silver lunar dragons serve us and we serve the planet.

Guidance

Choosing this card suggests that you call on the silver lunar dragons to bathe you in their energy and that you practise peace, harmony, equality, co-operation, love, unity and wisdom in your daily life. A lunar dragon will be close by, helping and supporting you. As you are bringing yourself into balance, you are doing your part to bring the planet into equilibrium.

Visualize your causal chakra as your own personal moon. The silver lunar dragons will touch and expand it until the frequency is high enough to allow pure white unicorns to step through it.

GOLDEN SOLAR DRAGON

Helps you stand in your masculine power with wisdom.

Let your DNA be reprogrammed and light codes activated. Become an inspired leader.

About

Golden solar dragons are seventh-dimensional beings who come from Helios, the Great Central Sun. This is the sun beyond our sun, where Archangel Metatron creates the light matter that is the foundation of our existence. Helios is the gateway between our universe and the Source of All That Is.

The golden solar dragons from Helios touch us with divine masculine energy. They infuse us with courage, strength, logic, leadership and the qualities of the peaceful warrior. They then balance this with golden wisdom, all at a much higher frequency than we are used to. Working in harmony with the silver lunar dragons, they are activating us all now, illuminating the DNA within us that has been dormant since the fall of Atlantis. We are being intensively reprogrammed in preparation for the new Golden Age.

Guidance

The golden solar dragon who has come to you now is asking you to balance your life, listen to your inner wisdom and become a leader. Dare to speak your spiritual truth. Hold the vision of a fifth-dimensional world. Protect those who are less capable than you are. With the support and guidance of this dragon, you can be a living example to many people.

When you aspire to be a wise spiritual leader, remember that true masculine power, used with wisdom, helps you and those around you to feel safe.

Spend a little time each day focusing on, or imagining, the sun shining onto your third eye and sense the light codes that the golden solar dragons are directing towards you.

Connects you to the highest Christ Light.

Develop your causal chakra.

Bathe in ninth-dimensional Christ Light.

About

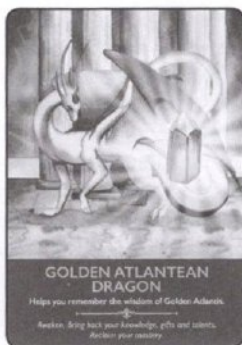

Lyra is the cross-shaped 12th-dimensional stargate through which Archangel Christiel and the unicorns enter our universe. The light from Lyra pours down through the moon, allowing scintillating seventh-dimensional dragons to step through into the vibration of Earth. These white-gold dragons embody the highest frequency of the Christ Light available to everyone on this planet. They work closely with Archangel Christiel, who is in charge of the development of the causal chakras of humanity. This is particularly important now, as our causal chakra is our connection to the higher dimensions of spirit: the dragons, angels, unicorns and masters. The white-gold dragons from Lyra help to clear and develop our causal chakra and illuminate our highest possible ascension path.

Guidance

These white-gold dragons are attracted to you now because you already carry Christ Light in your aura. Ask one to take you to the ninth-dimensional pool of Christ energy, held in Lakumay. Helps you remember the wisdom of Golden Atlantis.

Awaken, bring back your knowledge, gifts and talents. Reclaim your mastery.

About

Seventh-dimensional Golden Atlantean dragons hold the keys and codes of the awesome wisdom of Golden Atlantis. The Golden Era of Atlantis lasted for 1,500 years and during this time the people lived in harmony and happiness at the upper level of the fifth dimension. Humans, animals and the land itself radiated a golden aura and everyone enjoyed soul satisfaction. Source energy powered the Great Crystal held in the Temple of Poseidon, which was the power source for the civilization. The awesome spiritual technology of Atlantis was activated by crystals and mind control.

When we are ready to bring back our innate Atlantean knowledge and wisdom, Golden Atlantean dragons will come to us and reactivate the gifts and talents and information held within our DNA.

Guidance

This card invites you to activate your own personal fifth-dimensional blueprint, for it contains the light of the incredible era of Golden Atlantis. Your dragon will then remain with you and shine light into you as you prepare to stand in your power as an Atlantean master.

DARK BLUE GALACTIC DRAGON

Helps you listen to the voice of the universe.

Ignite the codes of your master blueprint.

Access cosmic wisdom and enter higher service.

About

These dragons shimmer with golden sparkles of cosmic wisdom, for they harness the light of the stars, planets and constellations. When we are ready, they touch us with this light, enabling us to embody the illumined energy and wisdom they contain.

While many of us are now able to attune to the ninth dimension, it is still an awesome light, filled with joy, love and wisdom beyond our current comprehension. Dark blue galactic dragons can send bursts of this cosmic searchlight through us to ignite the hidden codes of our master blueprint, the seventh-dimensional light of our soul, so that we can listen to the voice of the universe. (Remember our soul must be at least seventh-dimensional for us to receive permission to incarnate on Earth.)

Guidance

Your soul journey has taken you to the stars and beyond. The dark blue galactic dragons now invite you to communicate with the masters of the universe, the Intergalactic Council, where you can contribute your energy for the smooth ascension of the planet. It is time to listen and serve.

Decide whether your petition is for the welfare of animals or humanity, or to assist the ascension of the planet. Then ask the dragon to take you to the council to present your petition.

Dark blue galactic dragons will also instruct you during meditation or sleep. This will enable you to serve in a galactic capacity and will hugely expand your energy fields.

ALPHA DRAGON

Harnesses the divine masculine power of creation.

Destroy the old.

Visualize your dream.

Help to manifest a new world.

About

These incredible galactic dragons carry Archangel Metatron's highest light. They helped to create the universe that we live in and continue to breathe the yang energy of manifestation into our world. Because they have the power of physical manifestation, they work with our thoughts when we or the collective mind of humanity are ready to bring something into creation.

These are enormous and powerful dragons. They only work for the highest good. As they can build, they can also destroy. They are entering our world now at the end of the old era and the start of the new to facilitate the destruction of that which no longer serves our planet and the construction of a new world at a much higher frequency.

Guidance

Alpha dragons are bringing you a very special message: you are being called to demonstrate creative forces in your current project or experience. So ask these magnificent beings to assist you and know that their masculine energy will empower and strengthen you as you visualize what you want to build.

You can also ask these dragons to support you in constructing our new fifth-dimensional world. As you hold the vision of the new Golden Age, they can take your pictures and breathe life into them. This is a card of raw power and creation, so ensure your intentions are pure.

Ninth-dimensional Dragons

OMEGA DRAGON

Harnesses the divine feminine power of creation.

*Intention: Hold your vision.
Birth the higher consciousness.*

About

Ninth-dimensional omega dragons carry the divine feminine vibrations of Shekinah, the universal energy that created our world. Shekinah is the feminine counterpart of Archangel Metatron's higher light and represents pure creative vision. These powerful beings are assisting the birth of higher consciousness on Earth. Collectively, they hold the vision for the new Golden Age and this will enable us to achieve the intention set by Lady Gaia for the evolution of the planet.

These beautiful silver-white dragons will also help us hold a personal vision for the highest good. Every wish starts with a thought that is translated into a picture. These dragons can see into our mind and will hold our vision with us.

Guidance

When an omega dragon comes to you, it is time to give birth to a special new project, pathway or aspect of yourself that has remained hidden. Call upon these dragons to fill you with the power of the divine feminine. This will enable you to hold your vision and bring it to fruition in a wise, balanced and harmonious way.

Most important of all, ask the omega dragon to look into the greatest desire of your soul and hold the vision of bringing it to manifestation.

These dragons can be any shape or size, so just still your mind and give them permission to merge with your energy. Ask them to soften your path and the paths of all who hold the vision of the new Golden Age.

SOURCE DRAGON

Attunes you to the Infinite.

*Be still. In the silence, magic can happen.
Be in the moment.*

About

In the centre of all the dimensions, galaxies and universes is an infinite point of pure stillness and love. This is the heart of Source and from it flows the most incredible illumination.

As the wishes of Source flow forth, the illumined angels known as the Seraphim sing, 'Ohm,' the vibration of master creation, at a 12th-dimensional frequency. This allows the will of the Creator to spread as seed thoughts into the universe.

Ninth-dimensional transparent white Source dragons exist purely to attend to the divine will and turn wishes into reality. They step down the light to a ninth-dimensional level so that we can access it – they act as portals of light through which we can connect with the energies of the Infinite.

Guidance

A Source dragon has come to you now because it is time for you to enjoy a period of stillness with awareness. Breathe deeply and listen to the silence. Something very sacred is coming into your life. This could be anything from the fruition of a long-held dream to becoming a true master. It is being presented to you now. Be diligent, calm and focused and remember to breathe deeply. Breath is the key to being in the moment and this is where the greatest magic happens.

Ask the Source dragon to accompany you on every step of your exciting new journey and always remember that the present moment creates your future.
